

VI th social science

Lesson -1: our Karnataka

Part : A Bengaluru and mysuru divison

I. Fill in the blanks :

1. Karnataka is our state.
2. There are thirty districts in karnataka state.
3. Bengaluru is the capital of karnataka.
4. Chitradurga receives lowest rainfall .
5. Mysuru was the capital of Wadeyar kings.
6. River Cauvery originates from Talakaveri in Kodagu district.

II. True or false for the following:

1. Resources obtained from nature are called natural resources [True]
2. Mysuru is the capital of karnataka [False]
3. Shivamogga is called the rice granary of karnataka [True]
4. Jogfalls is the highest waterfalls in Asia [True]
5. Agumbe of Tirthahalli taluk receives lowest rains [False]
6. Bengaluru was the capital of Wadeyar kings [False]

III. Answer the following:

1. What are the natural resources? Give examples.

Ans: Resources obtained from nature are called Natural resources.

Eg: Rivers, forest ,waterfalls, Animals,Soil, minerals etc.

2. Which district in Bengaluru division receives the highest rainfall?

Ans: Shivamogga district in Bengaluru division receives the highest rainfall.

3. How many districts are there in karnataka state?

Ans: There are thirty (30) districts in karnataka state.

4. How many districts are there in Bengaluru division? Name them.

Ans: There are nine (9) districts in Bengaluru division.

Bengaluru urban, Bengaluru rural, kolar, Chikkaballapura, Ramanagar, Tumakuru,

Chitradurga, Shivamogga and Davangere

5. In which year the Iron and Steel factory in Bhadravathi was established?

Ans: The Iron and Steel factory in Bhadravathi was established in the year 1923.